

Executive compensation after tax reform

| Who is affected? | Topic | Prior law | New law | Potential implications | Questions |
|---|---|---|--|--|--|
| Executives in publicly traded companies and companies with registered debt offerings | Limitation on deduction of executive compensation exceeding $1 million, IRC Sec. 162(m), as amended | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deduction for compensation to covered executives of public companies limited to $1M • Exceptions applied for performance-based compensation and commissions • “Covered employee” status tested each year and did not carry over into later years | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expands definition of “publicly held corporations” to include certain companies that have registered debt offerings. • Expands definition of covered executives to include CEO, CFO and next 3 highest compensated officers, and any who were covered in any year after 2016. • Expands covered types of compensation to include those payable after the employee’s retirement or departure. • Expands compensation definition to include performance-based compensation and commissions. • Expands provision to cover taxable amounts received by executive’s beneficiaries, including after death. • Includes a grandfather provision for certain plans in effect November 2, 2017, that are not materially modified. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reduces the appeal for the business of stock-based compensation and incentives that are based on corporate performance. • Subjects death benefits taxable to a current or former covered employee to the deduction limitation. • Increases need for benefits with minimal impact to current compensation, to minimize the number of executives meeting the definition of “covered executives” where possible. • Eliminates the benefit of larger payouts after the retirement of a covered employee, but makes deferral attractive when future amounts payable can be spread out below the $1 million limit. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will the meaning of “performance-based compensation and incentives” be revised by regulations to cover a broader range of benefits? • What constitutes a “material modification” of a contract in effect November 2, 2017, and what methods will be acceptable for employers to determine the amounts that are grandfathered? |

| Who is affected? | Topic | Prior law | New law | Potential implications | Questions |
|--|--|--|---|--|---|
| Executives in nonprofit or tax-exempt organizations | Executive compensation in tax-exempt organizations, new IRC Sec. 4960 | No specific compensation limitations; potentially subject to private inurement rules under IRC Sec. 4598 if compensation is excessive. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New annual 21% excise tax applies to any applicable nonprofit or tax-exempt organization on compensation exceeding $1M on any covered employee. • Covered employees include the organization's 5 highest paid employees and any covered employees in any year after 2016. • Compensation will be considered paid for purposes of the tax when there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture (as defined under Section 457(f)) • An exception is provided for compensation for medical or veterinary services by a licensed medical professional, as well as for designated Roth contributions to certain retirement plans. • Compensation paid to the same employee by certain related organizations is also subject to the tax. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Benefits with minimal impact to current compensation will be more attractive. • Benefits that defer income and/or spread pay out at a level below $1 million will be attractive. • Plans designed to create a rolling risk of forfeiture, or noncompete provisions that constitute a substantial risk of forfeiture may be attractive to spread taxation after retirement over several years. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If state colleges and universities are tax-exempt under a doctrine of implied statutory immunity rather than under IRC Sec. 115(1), will they be subject to Section 4960? Will technical corrections address this? • How will regulation interpret "related organizations" for purposes of the excise tax? |

| Who is affected? | Topic | Prior law | New law | Potential implications | Questions |
|-----------------------------|--|---|--|---|--|
| C corporations | Tax rate IRC Sec. 11(b) | C corporations were subject to graduated rates as follows: $0 - $50K: 15% $50K - $75K: 25% $75K - $10M: 34% Over $10M: 35% | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All C corporations (including personal service corporations) are subject to a flat income tax rate of 21%, for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017. • Change is permanent. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Availability of new funds. • Premiums paid by the C corporation are less costly than those same premiums paid by the individual. | Guidance may be necessary for corporations on a fiscal year. |
| | Alternative minimum tax (AMT) | Larger C corporations (generally defined as having average annual gross receipts of $7,500,00 over three-year period) were subject to an alternative minimum tax, to the extent that their tentative minimum tax exceeded their regular tax. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The corporate alternative minimum tax is repealed. • Change is permanent. | Life insurance more attractive; no longer impacts AMT | Guidance on the treatment of existing AMT credit carryforwards might be helpful. |
| Passthrough entities | Tax deduction new IRC Sec. 199A | Income passed through to owners of S corporations, partnerships, sole proprietorships and most LLCs was taxed at the individual's top marginal rate. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An income tax deduction of up to 20% of "qualified business income" is available to many owners of pass-through businesses. • Subject to adjusted gross income limits. • Availability of deduction varies by business type; may increase with increased wages. • Change expires after 2025. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Potential availability of new funds. • Potential benefit from increased wage amounts, whether in the form of bonuses, qualified plan contributions, or salary increases. | Regulations or other guidance may clarify details of new Section 199A. |

principal.com

Insurance issued by Principal National Life Insurance Co. (except in NY) and Principal Life Insurance Co. Plan administrative services offered by Principal Life. Principal Funds, Inc. is distributed by Principal Funds Distributor, Inc. Securities offered through Principal Securities, Inc., 800-247-1737, Member SIPC, and/or independent broker/dealers. Principal National, Principal Life, Principal Funds Distributor, Inc. and Principal Securities are members of the Principal Financial Group®, Des Moines, IA 50392.

The subject matter in this communication is provided with the understanding that Principal® is not rendering legal, accounting, or tax advice. You should consult with appropriate counsel or other advisors on all matters pertaining to legal, tax, or accounting obligations and requirements.

Not FDIC or NCUA insured

May lose value • Not a deposit • No bank or credit union guarantee
Not insured by any Federal government agency

Principal, Principal and symbol design and Principal Financial Group are trademarks and service marks of Principal Financial Services, Inc., a member of the Principal Financial Group.